Home Burglary Interrupted

Seaside, CA
January 29, 2018

On January 16, around 12:45 pm, Seaside Police were called to the report of an interrupted home burglary in the 1700 block of Napa Street. The resident arrived home and discovered two unidentified young men inside his residence. The homeowner confronted the suspects and both ran out of a rear door and began jumping into surrounding residential yards before police had arrived. The suspects are described as Hispanic males in their late teens to early twenties. A third male is believed to be involved and he is described as a black male in his late teens to early twenties. A nearby surveillance video was able to capture some images of two of the suspects running from the area. Several personal items and jewelry were taken during the burglary. If anyone is able to identify either suspect, they are encouraged to contact the Seaside Police Department.
