MEDIA RELEASE

Residential Burglary Suspects Arrested

Alan Edwards (20)

Manuel Rodriguez (20)

Seaside, CA
April 26, 2017

On April 26, 2017, around 12:45pm, Seaside officers were called to the report of a home burglary in progress in the 2000 block of Yosemite St. As police arrived, Alan Edwards and Manuel Rodriguez fled the rear of the victim home and began jumping nearby home fences. Rodriguez was captured right away and Edwards led officers on a short foot chase.

The investigation revealed, Edwards and Rodriguez approached the victim residence at random and knocked on the front door. When no one answered, the suspects entered the backyard and forced entry through a locked door. Both suspects are from the Salinas area.

The conclusion of this incident was successful as a result of alert neighbors and a quick police response. We encourage members of our community to continue to report suspicious activity as we work together to reduce crime and apprehend criminals.

The mission of the Seaside Police Department is to provide quality police services, in partnership with our community, to enhance and maintain a safe environment.
