Police Outreach Vehicle Name Contest

The Seaside Police Department is proud to announce the City's purchase of a community outreach vehicle, but we need your help coming up with a catchy and clever name for the vehicle. The vision for the vehicle is to drive through neighborhoods and hand out healthy snacks to Seaside children. Aside from providing nourishing treats, the interactions would provide a tremendous opportunity to build positive relations with our youth. Getting to know one another as human beings provides a foundation upon which trust and mutual respect can be built. In the future, the vehicle will also be utilized to pass out school supplies, sports equipment and more. In addition, the vehicle will be used during community events for further outreach and engagement.

Community policing is the foundational philosophy to our success. Seaside Police Department is constantly searching for ways to creatively engage our community in rapport-building, non-enforcement settings that engender trust. We have a great relationship with our community and we want to make it better. The Police Outreach Vehicle is just one innovative way we are demonstrating our genuine concern for our community and strengthening relationships.

Seaside Police Department needs your help naming the vehicle! Seaside youth, age 8-18, are invited to submit catchy name submissions. The naming contest will run from October 22nd - November 12th. Submission forms can be picked up and turned in to the Oldemeyer Center (986 Hilby Avenue, Seaside) or submitted online at tinyurl.com/SeasidePDVan. The top three catchy name submissions will be sent to the community to decide. Winner will be recognized with a prize.
